

JANUARY NEWSLETTER 2019

I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert.

-Isaiah 43:19

In just a few short days, we will be ushering in a new year. And with a new year comes new possibilities! What do you hope to do differently in the new year? What do you hope will remain the same? What about your life inside the church and out can change and grow and flourish if you embrace something new? As you consider whether you should travel more, learn a new language, or take piano lessons in the new year, consider also what faith practices may enrich your life in 2019. A new practice can be as simple as praying before meals or as complex as reading and studying the entire bible in a year. Some of us will be joining the Good Book Club and will read Paul's letter to the Romans during Epiphany. This may be a helpful first step for anyone wishing to delve more deeply into scripture in the new year. Whatever possibilities you choose to explore, may your new year be a blessed one.

Peace,

Megan
